

EXERCISE 1: Choose a topic from the following list and write a narrative essay:

1. An unforgettable thing you saw on the news.
2. The plot of a movie you would like to produce.
3. Something that happened to your best friend.
4. An event that happened to you in your last travel.

Tips:

- Make sure that your thesis statement clearly states the point of your narration
- Organize incidents and anecdotes in chronological order
- Be sure to supply any background information
- Use transitional expressions that indicate time order to help your readers follow the narrative (Then..., A few days later..., Afterwards..., Later on...)