

ODAIBA COFFEE SHOP (Part one)

A: Welcome to Odaiba Coffee
How may I help you?

B: I would like a café latte
and a chocolate cookie.

A: We have two kinds of cookies:
soft and crunchy.

B: I'd like a soft, chocolate cookie please.

A: Okay. For here or to go?

B: For here please. What are those white things over there?

A: Those are peppermints. They are sweet.

B: I'd like three please.

A: Alright, your total is $5.00.

B: Here you are.

A: Thank you. Here you are.

ODAIBA COFFEE MENU
Cafe Latte		$1.00
Coffee		$1.00	Peppermints
Juice		$1.00	Chocolate cookies
Water		$1.00	Baklava

Alternate phrases (Part two)

I would like....

More polite

I want.....

Get me.....

Less polite

1. Ask for a café latte very politely.
Situation: At a fancy restaurant
2. Ask for a Baklava less politely.
Situation: At a fast food restaurant
3. Ask for some water using "I want...."
Situation: At a family restaurant
4. Ask for some peppermints
Situation: Teacher's choice

Alternate situations (Part three)

1. You are at Odaiba coffee. Order some food. The waiter brings you the wrong food. Please tell the waiter your problem and request.
2. Order some food. The waiter brings you some burnt food. Please ask the waiter to bring you more food. Use less polite language.
3. You spilled your juice on your new shirt. Please tell the waiter to bring you a new drink.
4. You ordered food but you forgot your wallet. Please tell the waiter that you can't pay for dinner.
5. It is your best friend's first time to eat dinner in your country. Please offer to pay for him or her.

Useful Vocabulary and Expressions (Part four)

Taste	In your language
Salty	_____
Bitter	_____
Sweet	_____
Tangy	_____
Bland	_____
Rich	_____
Weak	_____

Expressions	In your language
Hold the _____	_____
For here or to go	_____
Your eyes are bigger than your stomach.	_____
Second helping	_____
Help yourself.	_____
I will treat you.	_____