

Vocabulary to express Belief and Opinion

- Verbs connected with beliefs and opinions

I'm convinced we've met before.

I've always held/maintained that working with computers makes things easier.

I doubt we'll ever see world peace. [Don't believe]

I suspect there are a lot of people who don't accept this change. [Have a strong feeling about something negative.]

- Phrases for expressing opinion

In my view/in my opinion, we haven't made any progress.

She's made a big mistake, to my mind. [Fairly informal]

If you ask me, he ought to change his job. [Informal]

From my point of view, the new method is a disaster.

- Prepositions used with belief and opinion words.

Do you believe in team work?

What are your views on your boss?

What do you think of the new employee?

Are you for or against working extra time?

I have my doubts about this plan.